The Hollywood Partnership Launches New Text-based Public Safety Notification System

To better alert Hollywood stakeholders of public safety news and intel pertaining to our community, The Hollywood Partnership has launched HWDSAFETY, an additional tool for getting vital information to stakeholders as quickly as possible. With HWDSAFETY, The Hollywood Partnership will provide dependable information about significant, known situations that may threaten the safety of stakeholders in the district.

To subscribe to this free service, simply text HWDSAFETY to 41-411. Message & data rates may apply.
